

Cleanup activity takes place at head office and Okazaki Plant

Two hundred and sixty-five of our employees volunteered to participate in a cleanup activity on 30 May. They collected trash and swept the area surrounding the company's head office and its Okazaki plant.

This activity takes place every year. As a responsible corporate citizen, Anden will continue to promote activities which can contribute to society.

